Congratulations to the Sah family (Garisha in HUM) on the birth of their new baby girl.

Please remember to send your children into school wearing appropriate clothing especially if rain is expected. We only bring the children in at 8.45am if it is raining heavily (not if it is "spitting" or drizzling) so it is important that they are wearing waterproof clothing.

New Security Gates

Our new electronic gates are now up and running. The pedestrian gate will remain open at the beginning and the end of the school day.

8.30am – 9.00am and 3.20 – 3.45pm.

On after school clubs nights it will be open again at 4.30pm.

Office hours remain the same

8.30am – 9.30am and 3.00pm - 4.00pm

SCHOOL TRIPS

Do look regularly in your child's school bag for any letters they may receive, especially this term where there may be information about a school trip. If there is a request for a donation, please make every effort to send in the money as some trips may be cancelled if we do not receive enough to cover the costs. Thank you.

Our Meals and Other Debt Policy was sent home this week. Please take the time to read it as we cannot use school funds provided by the government for the education of children, to pay for chargeable goods and/or services provided, including school meals. School meals this half term is £45.60 until 26th May. All school meals should be paid for in advance.

This Sunday's reading – third Sunday of Easter

Luke 24:13-35

Two disciples are walking along, on their way to a place called Emmaus. Jesus was crucified two days before and the disciples are confused because the women have just come back from Jesus' tomb saying that it is empty. Why was Jesus' tomb empty? The two disciples meet a man along the road and they walk with him. Who do you think this was? But did the disciples recognise him? The man explains the Scriptures to the disciples so that they can understand that Jesus is risen from the dead. Do the disciples recognise him now? Finally the disciples persuade the man to come and eat with them. The man takes the bread, blesses it, breaks it and shares it with the disciples. Suddenly they realise who it is. Why do you think the disciples recognise Jesus now? Can you think of another time that Jesus broke, blessed and shared the bread? We are all made in the image of God and Jesus is in each and every person, but often we do not see him. We do not take the time to look for him in each other. But our eyes can be opened just like the disciples in this story. If we take the time to get to know others, to share food with them, perhaps we will come to see Christ in these people, our brothers and sisters, who are all part of God's family around the world. Could you share food with someone new this week? Perhaps you could sit with someone at lunchtime who you don't normally sit with, or who doesn't have many friends? Perhaps you could take some food down to a local food bank to share with those who don't have enough? While you are eating, take the time to talk to the people you are with and to think about how Christ is in each and every one of us. How would you behave if you were eating with Jesus? What would you say? How would you treat him?

And so, if Christ is in each of us, how do you think we should treat each other? The same as we would treat Jesus?

The disciples rushed back to tell people what had happened. Let us also by our actions, show that we believe that Jesus is risen and is always with us. What will you do to show that you see Jesus in all people in the coming week?
