This Sunday's reading – Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel: Matthew 22:1-14

What do you remember from today's reading?

Today Jesus tells us another parable to try and explain what the kingdom of heaven is like.

The king's son is getting married. He invites lots of people to the party but when the day comes and the king sends out his servants to fetch the people they do not come. He tries again, but the people just aren't interested in coming.

How do you think the king feels about this? What does he do next?

The king sends out his servants to stand in the middle of the street and invite everyone they can find to the wedding. So they do, and the wedding hall is filled with guests.

Have you ever been to a wedding? Or another big party or celebration? What was it like? Did you have to do anything beforehand to get ready to go to the wedding/party?

When we go to a wedding, or any party, we tell the person who invited us that we are coming. We get out our best clothes and make sure we are clean and tidy. We buy a present and write the card. Can you think of anything else that we do to get ready for a party?

The king in Jesus' story represents God and the wedding is the kingdom of heaven. What do you think that Jesus was trying to tell us with this story?

We are all invited by God to enter into the kingdom of Heaven. It is a place where everyone is welcome. But we have to be ready to go.

How do you think we can answer God's invitation and get ready for the kingdom of heaven?

We can listen to God's word and try to follow what God asks us to do in our lives. What do you think God asks us to do?

God asks us to be kind, to be welcoming and invite others to share in what we have, to bring peace, to stand up for what is right, to care for and respect one another and to love our neighbour, wherever they are in the world.

Can you think of anything else that God asks us to do?

By answering God's invitation and being kind and generous, welcoming and fair, by loving our neighbour, we can help to reflect God's kingdom here on earth. We will help other people to see that we care for everyone, no matter who they are or where they come from, and the world will become a better, fairer place for all people to live.

School closes next week on Thursday 19th October AT 3.30PM for half term holidays.

SCHOOL RE-OPENS MONDAY 30th OCTOBER

REMINDER

There will be no Lego, iPad, Stay & Play or Book Club next because of the parent/ teacher open evenings.

There will also be NO club next Friday 20th October as the school is closed for INSET Day.

Lots of the school reading books which have been sent home are missing. Please have a look around at home and return any school stamped books that have accumulated. There will be a box in the school reception where you can drop them.
